Michigan Ranks 9th in Nation for “Insourced” Jobs

Washington, DC — September 25, 2007 — With 202,300 Michiganders working for U.S. subsidiaries of companies headquartered abroad, Michigan ranks 9th in the nation in terms of the total number of “insourced” jobs. The Organization for International Investment (OFII) today released new Commerce Department statistics, which show that insourced jobs continue to be an integral part of the U.S. economy.

“Foreign-based companies have paid the Michigan workforce a huge compliment by choosing to employ over 200,000 workers in the state,” said Todd Malan, President and CEO of the Organization for International Investment, a Washington, DC-based business group representing U.S. subsidiaries of companies based abroad. “U.S. subsidiaries insource jobs to every state in the country, supporting a total of 5.1 million American jobs and a $336 billion annual payroll,” Malan stated.
